Christopher is hoping to run a summer course with choir and masterclasses for advanced youth singers and adults. Anybody interested should consult the website and let Christopher know as soon as possible.

Promenade will be repeating the very successful workshop performance of Jonathan Willcock's Good for You! with the participation of local schools in the autumn.

The next rehearsal will be Monday 16th September. The Christmas concert including Rohn Rutter's The Reluctant Dragon, will be at St. Andrew's Church in Walton on Sunday 8 December.

There should be a workshop for the girls' choir preparing a concert at All Saints' Church, Thames Ditton on Monday December 23rd.

Most years the summer term means saying goodbye to a few members of the choir as they move on to pastures new. Helen and Rose have university plans. Miles, Josh and Mike all finish with their current courses - I hope they will stay with Promenade whilst they plan their futures. No doubt there are others who might struggle to be able to continue their commitment.

Quite a few current choir members have been with me since the choirs' inception, and Beth is one of those who is leaving us too. It is easy to take one's own children for granted, but I owe her so much; she has brought many members into the choir, she has been a stalwart and leader of the alto section. She has been an advisor on repertoire. Above all, this year she has been a mentor to the junior choir and a thoroughly capable assistant director. Thank you Beth!

Thank you all for your hard work. I really shall miss those of you who are leaving and wish you well. You will always be welcome back for concerts!
